August 2017 Class Schedule

Crochet Lace Mitts: Want some wearable lace but aren't ready to commit to a shawl project? These dainty little mitts are the perfect solution. Shells and single crochet create the lacy details, and the pattern uses some innovative shaping to create the thumb increase. They work up quickly and use up stash yarn, all while delivering lots of style and moxie. They also make wonderful gifts, so why not join us to make a few pair? As part of the class, Jessica will teach the modification that creates the raised ribbing.

- Tuesdays, August 22 & 29 from 6:30- 8:30 p.m. with Jessica
- $40 plus supplies

Duplicate Stitch: Need to weave in ends properly? Duplicate stitch is your answer. Would you like to add a motif or lettering to your knitting? Duplicate stitch is what you're looking for. Need to fix some of those dreaded moth holes? Again, duplicate stitch. Yep, ladies and gentlemen, duplicate stitch is the answer to all of these. Find out the mysteries of duplicate stitch when you take this 2-hour class.
