

Holiday StitchEscape

December 1, 2018

Nationwide Hotel & Conference Center, Columbus, Ohio

Our Holiday StitchEscape is a day filled with beautifully curated yarns and classes by outstanding instructors, surrounded by others who also love the craft.

Daytime activities include classes, marketplace, and sit-n-stitch.

Evening event includes:

- Skeins to skeins – Cori Eichelberger, author, designer, teacher
- What you always wanted to know about hand-dyed yarns but were afraid to ask – Stephanie Alford, SpaceCadet Yarns

event tickets $65

Ticket price includes the evening event, access to our sit-n-stitch room, and the marketplace. All classes are a la carte pricing. Meals are on your own, either at the center or nearby shopping area.

available classes

(details on the next page)

9am-12pm

- Novelty Cables
Olga Buraya-Kefelian $80
- 50 Shades of Sweaters
Cori Eichelberger $45

2-5pm

- 3Dimensional Knitwear
Olga Buraya-Kefelian $80
- 50 Shades of Shawls
Cori Eichelberger $45

9am-5pm (with lunch break)

- Rag Rug Weaving Workshop
Constance Hall $110

schedule at a glance

10am-6pm marketplace

9am-12pm morning classes

2-5pm afternoon classes

8-11pm evening event

how to register

Tickets for the StitchEscape can be purchased in-person at the studio, over the phone with credit card (614-670-5629), or on our website (www.614knitstudio.com/events).

Marketplace-only attendance does not require registration and does not have a fee.

morning classes: 9am-12pm

50 Shades of Sweaters – Cori Eichelberger ($45)

This workshop will give you a chance to look at construction styles of 60 sweaters; you will really visually “see” what you may like or dislike about a sweater pattern. Cori will give you ideas for things you've never heard of doing to get a sweater to fit you superbly. She will show you why some sweaters look great on everyone and talk about why some sweaters will never fit anyone well, even though we love the look of them.

Novelty Cables

Olga Buraya-Kefelian ($80)

We all love the look of cabled knits but some of them can be quite complex to execute! In this class you will be presented with five other novel options of creating cables using other than the traditional technique.

Level: Beginner

Skills needed: knit, purl, cast on, bind off

afternoon classes: 2-5pm

3Dimensional Knitwear with Ginga Cowl Olga Buraya-Kefelian ($80)

This class is part demonstration with AV presentation and lecture about 3D knitwear in hand knitting approach and all inspiration process. Olga presents her 3D design philosophy, to reveal a slightly different angle of knitwear and putting your existing knitting skills into a novel path.

Level: Intermediate

Skills needed: knit, purl, cast on, bind off, increase, decrease

50 Shades of Shawls Cori Eichelberger ($45)

This is your chance to take a look at the world of knitted shawls, from different constructions to yarn choices, color choices as well as styling options. Anything you wear around your neck will be modeled and discussed with tips and tricks to make your shawl knitting a must have!

all-day class: 9am-5pm (with lunch break)

Rag Rug Weaving Workshop – Constance Hall ($110)

Learn how to weave with fabric, rag rugs, or t-shirts on your rigid heddle loom. There are tricks and tips that will help you and your loom weave many projects with fabric: placemats, coasters, rugs, clothing! In this class we will warp and weave a placemat, learning all the tips that will make your future projects successful. We will have fun and learn in a step-by-step way, leaving no weaver behind! Level: Beginner

